

Jesus traveled into a village, where ten men met him with askin disease which made their skin itchy and it was painful. In Bible times, people avoided and stayed away from people that had leprosy. Jesus saw them and came close to the group saying, "Go. Show yourselves to the priests." They took off to visit the priests. While they were on the way, they were suddenly healed.

Jesus was teaching & traveling with the disciples, people started bringing kids to Jesus.

They wanted him to bless the kids. But the disciples told them to stop. When Jesus saw this. He said to his disciples, "Let the little children come to me. Don't keep them away. God's kingdom belongs to people like the children. Then he took the children in his arms. He placed his hands on them to bless them.

Jesus was passing through a town. There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a tax collector and rich. Zacchaeus wanted to see who Jesus was, but he could not, because he was short. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a tree to see Jesus. Jesus saw Zacchaeus and said, "Zacchaeus, come down, for I must eat with you at your house today." Zacchaeus hurried down and joyfully took Jesus to his house.
