

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."
— Matthew 7:12

Use these cards with friends and family for honest and kind conversations.

Rules of the Game:

- 1) Intentionally listen to others
- 2) Speak with kindness
- 3) Learn something new!

What is your
first memory of
taking part in democracy?

What part of
your identity is
most impactful
in shaping your
political views?
Why?

What is your
hope and
dream for our country?

How can we
participate in
democracy in addition to
voting?

What is a topic
you would be
open to finding
common ground
on?

How does
media
influence
your political
opinions?

How can
we be more
intentional
and respectful
listeners, even
when we
disagree?

When has
listening
to another
point of view
broadened
your understanding
of a topic?

When do you
notice yourself
becoming
"hard-of-
listening" and
closed-off to
what someone
has to say?

How would
it benefit our
country if
we were less
polarized?

How can we
use the
Golden Rule
to unite as
a community?
